1. Casting their nets in Galilee, All through the night, caught nothing at all. Seeing the Lord, looked in his eyes; followed his word, its truth recognized.

2. Beckoning help, to others called, Nets filled with fish astonished. Peter fell down on his knees, saying, "I've sinned. Depart from..."

©2013 Grace Hegg
The Sea of Galilee

me."
Still the Lord said, "Follow me."

Galilee.
There upon the sea.

Jesus said, "Come fol-

me."
Galilee.
If you leave the sea, Fishers of men you can be.Entered a ship as Jesus bid. Leaving him there, Disciples did. Soon wind and waves were contrary. A shadow approached walking on the sea.
The Sea of Galilee

Think ing him

spirit, cried for fear. They heard, "Tis I. Be of good cheer." Peter said,

"Lord, if it be Thee, Bid me come out." He heard, "Come to me."

Galilee. Walking on the sea.
Still, he wasn’t sure that it could be.

Peter feared the boisterous waves.

He started to sink, crying, "Lord, save me!"
Je-sus, in love, his hand stretched out. "Pe-ter, where-fore didst thou doubt? Why did you doubt?" He was raised from beneath the sea.

Peter learned his destiny.  Then at last he now could see; standing with Christ in Galilee.